FEW CHANGES IN TOTALS FOR CANDIDATES

Only slight changes in totals from the unofficial tabulation of results were noted when the official count of last Tuesday's primary election was completed this morning.

Tabulators estimated that approximately 3,500 written-in votes were cast in the primary that selected approximately 700 candidates for various county, borough and township offices.

They also found 126 spoiled ballots during their tabulation. The spoiled ballots cost the county $83. Commissioners' Clerk Crosby Hartz estimated.

Seventy-six lost their vote because they used check marks instead of "x" marks to signify their choice. 16 made other miscellaneous markings on their ballots, 24 forgot to remove the numbered tabs from their ballots, eight wrote in ink, two erased, and eight either put no markings at all on their ballots, or simply marked one big x over everything.

Republican Totals

On the Republican ticket, for county wide office: R. M. Starry received 1,506; Clarence D. Dear-dorf, 2,040, and Howard D. Way-bright, 1,079 votes for associate judge. For sheriff the vote was Charles D. Baird, 2,507; James War-ren, 2,075, plus four votes for Dawson Miller and one for Dorsey Schultz.

Kenneth W. Johns received 4,179 votes for clerk of courts, and five others received one vote each. Clark

HOLD MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES DESPITE RAIN

Despite a drenching downpour, the annual Memorial Day observance was held at Biglerville Sunday afternoon.

The parade had turned into the street to the cemetery, when a heavy rain fell, sending spectators and parade participants scattering to cars and homes.

About ten minutes later, when the rain stopped the Ira Lady Legion firing squad went to the cemetery, as did Cub Scouts carrying flowers for distribution on the graves, and the service was held with a fair sized crowd in attendance.

Charles Yost, Biglerville High School principal, was the master of ceremonies. Ann Bucher recited "In Flanders Field" and Richard Guise recited Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. Rev. Dr. Henry W. Sternat gave the invocation and benediction.

REV. FEHL IS SUV SPEAKER HERE SUNDAY

"We as Americans do not realize the heritage we have," Rev. Harry Fehl, pastor of Memorial EUB church here, said at the annual Grand Army of the Republic ritual memorial services held at the GAR post home, E. Middle St., Sunday afternoon.

"We are an ungrateful lot. We complain. We are bitter. We are selfish. Perhaps our selfishness is a lack of remembrance of what has been that we might recall how fortunate we are. Today is a day of recollection of the sacrifices that were made by men and women now dead that we might have freedom and comforts undreamed of.

"In Exodus the Lord said to the Jews, 'This day shall be unto you a day of memorial.' It was the day when the blood of the sacrificial lamb had been placed on the doors that it might be a sign to the death angel to spare the first born of the homes so marked. Our Memorial Day as well is marked by the shedding of blood, the blood of the men who fought that our nation might come into existence and be preserved.

Conduct Ritual

"Memorial Day is a day when we remember things of the past, and look to the future. It is a day when we should make resolutions that in honoring the dead we are strengthened to carry on the work among the living.

"In honoring the dead we are carrying on a tradition of thousands of years standing. The ancient Romans placed flowers on the graves of their dead; the Jews decorated their graves.

"But our most important Memorial Day duty is to translate our recollections into action. We

DR. H. D. HOOVER LAUDS VETERANS OF CIVIL WAR

"On Memorial Day we honor all of our dead, but particularly the men who fought to preserve the union in the Civil War," Rev. Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, professor emeritus at the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary, said Saturday afternoon at the annual Memorial services held at Wenksville.

"The Civil War soldier was essentially a civilian who had little training. If he was homesick he went home for a few days and then returned to the battle. He often went home during the spring to do the plowing and in the fall to help with the harvest. And most were boys. They were truthful and so they wrote 'I' on a slip of paper and put it in their shoes so that when the recruiting officers asked they could with truth say they were over 18. They were so young that 75 years later 1,500 of them could gather at Gettysburg.

"Many Died Of Disease
"And for the most part they were simple men, men who never went to school because there were no schools near them. They had no chaplains, no provision was

MD. SYNOD TO OK PLANS HERE FOR NEW CAMP

Final negotiations are expected to be completed this week for the purchase of some 150 acres of lands in the Douths, Md., area which will be the "key acreage" for a proposed 300-acre Lutheran Church camp.

According to a spokesman for the Lutherans the church representatives are to approve the initial purchase at the 138th annual convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Maryland of the United Lutheran Church in America at this evening.

The land, all wooded areas, is a continuation of the Braddock range of the Catoclin Mountains and lies about three miles north of Point of Rocks.

$200,000 Earmarked

A church spokesman reported that in the neighborhood of $200,000 has been earmarked for the camp site and improvements. He said the land will be the least expensive proposition of the project saying that approximately $20 to $30 is being paid per acre for that now under option.

Only a short distance away from the Lutheran tract lies the old Harry Hickman farm which two Washington men purchased from Bert-ram King in March, reportedly paying $135,000 for 734 acres. The purchasers were Arthur H. Bowins, Bethesda car dealer, and James L. Gibbons, sports announcer.

The Lutheran church spokesman said that the land has several small streams and the church plans to develop the water supply. Also he said, it lies only one-fourth of a mile from the proposed path of U. S. 15. It is in a central location as far as the churches in the Mary-land area.

SET JUNE 9TH AT 4 P.M. FOR CHILDREN'S DAY

Sunday, June 9, at 4 p.m. was set as the hour for the annual Children's Day program in the Presbyterian Church at the May meeting of the officers and teachers of the Church School at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Bartholomew, Windbrill Lane.

Decision to hold the program Sunday afternoon came after a long discussion and represents a new plan for the annual service. After the program in the church auditorium, parents and friends will be invited to visit the Church School departments where displays will be arranged and light refreshments will be served. In recent years the Children's Day program usually has been held during the morning worship hour.

Plans were made for holding a church school fire drill next month; a $10 donation was voted to the Adams County Council of Christian Education and estimates are to be secured on the cost of placing one or more electric clocks in the Church School building. A request from the Child Welfare Services on the county for a donation was referred to the Board of Deacons of the church.

Arrangements for the daily Bible School to open June 10 at the church were discussed as were plans for the Children's Day Program. Miss Ruth McIlhenny will be superintendent of the Bible School and Mrs. David Deitch and Mrs. Clarence Bartholomew are arranging for Children's Day with the help of superintendents of the various departments.

Expressing the opinion that "we brought the boys home too soon after World War I," he said that while the United States has the greatest scientists, the greatest manpower and the greatest armaments, "we have trouble winning the peace." He pointed to the United Nations as a great stride forward and reviewed some of the outstanding accomplishments of the U.N.

MEMORIAL DAY IS OBSERVED IN BENDERSVILLE

"Memorial Day is a day of remembrance," Rev. Reginald Deitz, of the Gettysburg Seminary faculty, told a Memorial Day audience at Bendersville Saturday afternoon. "But our remembrance should not be only a passive thing, honoring the dead for the heritage they have left us. Our remembrance must also be active, to keep intact the heritage they left us, the heritage of making America the world's best hope for all men.

"Remembering is a highly civilized act. In fact societies do not become civilized until they have a recollection of the past and build on it.

"Today is not a time to mourn. We are grateful for this land of ours, we are grateful for our heritage that has come down to us from generations past.

"Best Hope For Man"

"It is important that we do not take this heritage for granted. We must remember that they too were only ordinary people, like you and I. They did not think of themselves as heroic, but what they hoped for, what they lived for, what they died for, has made our inheritance.

"Lincoln has said that our land is the last best hope for man on earth. We have a destiny under God to be known not just for power, but for goodness, justice and liberty. It is important for us, as ordinary people, who do the work of the world, to be dedicated to the task of building integrity in the work."

Attorney Leighton C. Taylor, Bendersville burgess, was master of ceremonies. Norman Blocher read Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. Dr. C. D. Coble and Rev. John Jay gave the invocation and benediction. Music was by the Biglerville High School bands. The ritual was provided by the Ira Lady American Legion Post. Konrad Adenauer, Chancellor of West Germany and head of the Christian Democrat anti-communist party came to Gettysburg Sunday to lunch with President Eisenhower at the latter's farm, inspect his cattle and tour the board acreage and hold informal talks.

Adenauer is the second head of a foreign government to visit President Eisenhower in Gettysburg. Premier Nehru, of India, came here several months ago. Two weeks ago Field Marshal Viscount Bernard Montgomery, one of General Eisenhower's commanders during World War II, came here for a visit.

Chancellor Adenauer flew here from White Plains, N. Y., at 12:33 p.m. Sunday afternoon. A large crowd was on hand to greet him. The first to salute, welcome him and shake his hand was Major John Eisenhower who officially represented his father at the airport. With Adenauer in his plane were Wiley Buchanan, chief protocol officer of the State Department, and Heinz Weber, the Chancellor's interpreter.

Luncheon At Farm

James C. Hagerty, presidential press secretary, marshalled the dignitaries to several limousines and the visitors were driven to the Eisenhower farm where a creamed chicken luncheon was served. Others at lunch were the President's son, his personal physician, Dr. Howard M. Snyder, Mr. Buchanan and Mr. Weber. Then the Chancellor conferred for more than an hour on the glass-enclosed porch of the large farm house.

Shortly after two o'clock the President and his guest drove to the cattle shed where scores of reporters and photographers milled around them taking pictures by the dozens while correspondents strained ears to catch every word that was said.

The President wore a mixed gray sports jacket, gray slacks, black shoes with foam rubber soles a white shirt, blue-white tie and a tan hat. Adenauer wore a somber suit of charcoal gray, white shirt, gray-greenish tie. He had discarded his black Homburg which he wore when he arrived at the airport.

Explains Judging
The President explained to the Chancellor, through his interpreter, how cattle are judged. "They brush and clean them carefully, curl their

ARENDTSTVILLE MEMORIAL DAY SERVICE HELD

"Memorial Day reminds us that the strength of America depends upon the integrity of its people," Rev. Paul L. Reaser, pastor of St. James Lutheran Church here, said Sunday afternoon at annual Memorial Day services at Arendtsville.

"Integrity means that one keeps one's promises. And all have made promises—the husband and wife in the home, each to each other, to build a Christian home; most of us before the altar of some church, to keep the commandments of God and live a Christian life; employers by the nature of their ownership and employes by nature of their work give an implicit promise to each other; political leaders give a promise to the people to provide good leadership and the people give a promise to those whom they have elected, to support them in that which they do rightly. All of us have made many promises. Our depth of integrity is based on how well we keep those promises.

Parade Held First
"Memorial Day also reminds us of the great material wealth of our land, the untold wealth of soil and river, and minerals under the earth, that has been given into our keeping. This also is Soil Conservation Week, which reminds us that we have a promise to keep implicit in the land. For we have lost three inches of the precious nine inches of topsoil that was our heritage and for which we are stewards.

"Memorial Day reminds us of

HUNTERSTOWN SERVICE HELD ON SATURDAY

"It means much that we as a people observe Memorial Day," Rev. Harold Myers, pastor of the Four-square Gospel Church here, said Saturday evening at the annual Hunterstown Memorial Day services held in the Great Conewago Presbyterian Church. "In many parts of the world less is thought of the living than we think of the dead."

"Memorial Day is a day of memories, when we think of the ones whom we loved so dearly and who now lie buried. The flowers that we place on their graves are a symbol of the sacrifices the dead have made that we might have freedom."

"Memorial Day is also a day of decision, that we may remain free in soul, free in spirit, free to live beneath the Stars and Stripes of freedom."

SUV Ritual Held

"If God himself was willing to give His only begotten Son that man might be at peace, how can we avoid sacrifice that peace and freedom might encompass the world? Peace between nations and freedom for the world is cheap at any price."

"In this hour of our decision, the dead in the graves speak to us, they say to us today that we too should make the decision to serve God and serve our nation that we may continue to enjoy the freedom we have so far been privileged to enjoy."

Attorney Donald M. Swope was master of ceremonies for the program. Fred Pfeffer delivered Lincoln's Gettysburg address. The Rev. Herman Beatty gave the invocation and benediction. The program followed a parade including school children, Sons of Union Veterans, a Gettysburg High School band, the Lower Adams Band of Hunterstown and Ruritan Club members from Hunterstown to the cemetery. The Grand Army ritual was presented by the Sons of Union Veterans at the cemetery.

The calf actually arrived in Gettysburg Friday. The papers were brought to the White House today by Thye and Minnesota Dairy Princess Barbara Jean Bossus of Brainerd, Minn.

"We used to have a Brahma bull," Mr. Eisenhower said. "He was a mean fellow. We had to get rid of him."

After inspecting the largest bull, Ankonian, 3551, the President had his herdsman, Robert Hartley, bring a small bull, Black Brutus of E.F. (Eisenhower Farms), from its stable.

The President explained, "This fellow gains three pounds a day and when he is one year old he'll probably weigh one thousand pounds."

Then the party moved to a pasture across the field where for ten minutes they inspected another herd.

Fly Two Flags

The President's car bearing the Chancellor sported two flags at the front bumper, the Stars and Stripes of the United States and the black, maroon and gold tri-color of West Germany. Both had gold fringes around the edges.

Six twin-engine Aero Commanders were lined up in a row awaiting the Americans and Germans.

Colonel William Draper, the President's pilot, stepped to the President's car and saluted when the Chief Executive stepped out. They talked briefly and then the two world leaders walked to the lead plane. At the request of photographers they posed for pictures and then stepped into their plane.

At Washington the President drove Adenauer to Blair House and then returned to the White House.

Have Enough Money For Square Flowers

Gettysburg residents and business places have given $68 toward the purchase of the 100 geraniums placed in the concrete tubs on Lincoln Square Saturday.

Walter B. Lane chairman of the project, expressed his appreciation for the public support and said the $3 above the amount needed for the flowers will be held to provide additional flowers later.

One of the tubs was moved to a location near the AAA office on the corner from a site near Carlisle St. The move was made, he said, because of the narrowness of the sidewalk at the former site, and because plans are being made to place an improvement contest plaque to be presented by the state Chamber of Commerce on the Weaver building near the AAA office above the spot where the tub with its tree and flowers is now located.

Aiding Lane in planting the flowers Saturday were Patrick Roth and Paul Hoffman of Explorer Post 78, and Sterling Cole.

POLICE UNITE BOY AND CASH HE LOST HERE

Borough police Saturday recorded on their call sheet a story involving a frightened boy and an honest one.

The honest part appeared first, at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon when William Pinko, 205 S. Washington St., arrived in the police office accompanied by his son, Michael Pinko, Michael, according to police, told them he had found some money on S. Washington St. and had gone to his father to ask him what to do. When the father said the best thing to do was to turn it in to the police department so they could find the person who had lost it, Michael asked his father to accompany him to the police, Mr. Pinko did.

Later Saturday night Larry Weikert, of 9 Baltimore St., sidled up to a policeman and inquired whether anybody had seen any lost money.

The officers said this was the story Leroy told them: Larry had been given money by his mother to pay a light bill. Enroute, by the way of S. Washington St., he lost the money. Fearful of reporting the money lost, he went to an aunt and confided in her. She lent him the money to pay the light bill and advised him to go back after he had paid the bill and search for the money. He was unable to locate it and finally got up courage to ask a policeman.

Larry got his money back, so he could pay his aunt, and the officers told Larry to see Michael and express his appreciation.

Tonight's Game
 Rotary (Eckert 0-0) vs. Moose (Whittinghill 0-0).

The Moose and Rotary Little League teams jumped off to fast starts in the 1957 campaign by gaining wins in Saturday's opening doubleheader over the Lions and Glenn L. Bream teams respectively. In the opening game the Moose downed the Lions 12-3 while in the nightcap the Rotary won over the Glenn L. Bream outfit 7-0.

Burgess William G. Weaver officiated the season by throwing out the first ball. With both teams lined up on the field, little Tommy Collins of the Rotary Tigers captured the pitch from the burgess and immediately had it autographed by Mr. Weaver. During the ceremonies, League President Hardy M. Nichols presented Manager Bob Miller and his Moose squad arm patches and a trophy for winning last year's title.

Get Fast Start
 The Moose took off with five runs in the top of the first frame and added five more in the second to take an easy 10-0 lead over Fred Baker's Lions. After Ron Miller went down swinging, the next seven men reached base safely to produce five runs. Lynn Keefer, Paul Plank, Tom Whittinghill and Cletus Redding singled while Rich Fisel and Bob Greiner drew passes and Gary Fair was hit by a pitched ball. Lion pitcher Doug Appier then settled down and struck out the next two men to end the inning. In the top of the second Keefer and Fisel walked, Plank hit safely to center. Fair took first on a fielder's choice. A pair of infield misuses and another walk put Redding, Greiner and Rich Fair on base and sent home five more runs.

A walk and an error enabled Plank and Fair to reach base, later scoring a double steal and a miscue in the last of the third to give the Moose their final tally.

In the top of the third Ed Zeigler walked, Bob Selby went in to run for Zeigler and came home after a free pass to Barry Sease and a single by Ed Tilberg to give their initial run. The Lions tried desperately that point on to knot the count but were able to come up with only two more runs in the top of the sixth. An error and a hit batsman put Gene Schultz and Dave Minter, respectively, on base and Mike Boyer's single sent in the two runners with the final score.

Paul Plank paced the Moose attack with two hits and drove in one run. Ed Tilberg took honors for the Lions with the same number of hits. Gary Fair received his first win of the season while Doug Appier is charged with the loss.

All Runs In First
 Seven runs in the bottom of the first enabled the Rotary Tigers to capture a 7-0 win over the Glenn L. Bream team in the nightcap. A walk to Dane Kennell and a sacrifice by Tom Collins started the spree for manager Jack Bream's outfit. Jim Davies, Johnny Holoka and Larry Eckert followed with clean singles to send in Kennell. W. CATHOLIC WINS TOURNEY FOR 11TH TIME

READING, Pa. (AP)—West Catholic High School of Philadelphia is the Pennsylvania interscholastic Catholic track and field champion for the 11th straight year. The Burrs rolled up 57½ points yesterday in the annual championship meet, held at St. Lawrence High here. Msgr. Bonner of Drexel Hill was runnerup with 40 points, followed by Northeast Catholic of Philadelphia with 23 and Pittsburgh Central with 19 1/3.

In the Karver Mile, an annual feature of the PCIAA meet, former New York University middle distance star George King, beat Horace Ashenfelter, the 1952 Olympic 3,000-meter steeplechase champion and a Penn State grad, by 15 yards, winning in 4:17.2, slowest time in the nine-year history of the event.

Break 3 Records
 West schoolboys shattered three meet records in piling up their team's winning total. Joe Manion won the 220-yard dash in 22 seconds, two-tenths under the old mark. Malcolm Boykin won the 120-yard high hurdles in 15 seconds, shaving three-tenths off the previous mark. The mile relay crew of Charles Leps, Carl Wagner, Terry McGovern and Manion clipped 11.6 seconds off the mark they set last year in winning that event in 3:27.8.

In addition, Manion won the 100-yard dash in 10 seconds flat to tie the record set last year. He was the only double winner of the day.

Big Little League Plans Twin Opening; Judge And Burgess To Make 1st Toss

A "twin-opening" night has been planned for Tuesday and Wednesday evenings when the Big Little League baseball campaign swings into action at the Recreation Field for the 1957 season.

Judge W. C. Sheely will toss out the first ball Tuesday evening when the Elks meet the Eagles at 6 o'clock.

Burgess William G. Weaver will do the honors Wednesday evening when the Cities Service opposes the American Legion.

A snow fence, loaned by the local state highway department, was erected around the field last week. For the past several weeks all four squads have been holding regular workouts and all are ready to open the 24-game program which ends July 26.

At the conclusion of the season playoffs will be staged between the teams.

Last year the Elks edged Cities Service in a playoff for the championship.

Sponsors and managers of the teams included the following: American Legion, Glenn Harner; Cities Service (Blue Ridge Oil Co.), Curt Eckert; Eagles, John Dick, and Elks, John Toggas.

Glenn L. Bream, League president, has called to the attention of managers that the league will strictly adhere to the prompt starting time of 6 p.m. At that hour each team must field a full squad or forfeit.

28 VETERANS, 5 NEWCOMERS IN MAY 30 RACE

By DALE BURGESS
 INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—A field of 28 Indianapolis Motor Speedway veterans and five newcomers seasoned on shorter tracks will start Thursday in the 41st 500-mile speedway auto race.

Two Novi V8s will face 31 cars powered with the old reliable Offenhauser engines.

The Novis, driven by old-timers Paul Russo and Tony Bettenhausen, demonstrated in the trials that they are the fastest cars in the field—but they've never won the race.

To Make 11th Start
 Bettenhausen, former national champion from Tinley Park, Ill., turned in the best trial performance yesterday with a 10-mile run at 142.439. Russo, of Canoga Park, Calif., set the best speed of the trials at 144.817 in another wind-blown run Saturday.

Both Russo and Bettenhausen will be starting for the 11th time. Sam Hanks of Pacific Palisades, Calif., who made the lineup Saturday at a brisk 142.812, will be trying for the 12th time to win the top share of the $300,000 purse.

There were 43 runs in yesterday's six-hour session.

Among those who failed to make the lineup were Johnnie Parsons,

BIBLE-CARRYING YOUTH CHARGED IN MURDER CASE

HACKENSACK, N. J. (AP)—An 18-year-old youth who always carries a Bible in his pocket was charged with murder yesterday in the slaying of pretty Ruth Starr Zeitler.

Fred Galda, first assistant Bergen County prosecutor, said Ronald Marrone, a Fair Lawn High School sophomore, had dictated what Galda called a confession to the lovers' lane strangulation of his 15-year-old classmate.

Galda quoted the youth as repeating "I'm making this statement to God. I'm telling this to God" as he held tightly to his Bible.

Had Questioned 40
Marrone read the statement carefully and signed it late last night, Galda said. He is scheduled to appear at a preliminary hearing June 7.

The youth was among more than 40 persons questioned since Ruth's semine body was found in a wooded glen in Paramus last Thursday.

The girl, a pretty brunette, had left for afternoon classes at the high school May 17. She did not arrive for classes and never came home.

He Made Classes
When her body was found, her white belt was knotted about her neck. Some of her clothing was rolled up in a ball nearby, and a wad of cleansing tissue was stuffed in her mouth.

An autopsy report said the girl had been attacked.

Galda said Marrone had picked Ruth up in a car at 11:30 a.m. on the day of the murder, drove her to the deserted lovers' lane area and managed to return to classes by about 12:20 p.m.

Heard Billy Graham
Authorities said Marrone went to New York's Madison Square Garden on the night of the slaying to hear evangelist Billy Graham.

The dark, crew-cut youth was described as extremely devout by the Rev. William C. Brownson, pastor of the Second Reformed Church of Lodi. Brownson said the boy always carried the Bible in his pocket. Marrone was president of the young people's group of the church, a substitute Sunday school teacher and a member of the choir.

The youth is also a member of his high school's track team and has run the mile in 4:49.

Buy Victim Today
The slain girl, known as Starr to her friends, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zeitler of Fair Lawn.

She will be buried in Fair Lawn today.

Galda said authorities were led to suspect Marrone because the youth did not take a customary ride in his car with another boy and girl before afternoon classes on the day of the slaying.

The high school operates on a split-session schedule. Marrone and Ruth went to school in the afternoon only.

Suspect Four Years Ago
Asst. Prosecutors Frank J. Cuccio and William J. Arnold said that soon after the girl's body was found police went through records dating back four years to find a clue to the murder.

The records showed that two girls, then 11 and 5, had been assaulted three years ago and tissue paper stuffed into their mouths. Marrone was among some 100 persons questioned in connection with that case, police said, but he was released because he had an alibi for the time at which the assaults took place.

The case was dismissed after charges were withdrawn. Galda said the youth's family moved from nearby Lodi to Baldwin, Md., some years ago. The family returned to Bergen County last August and now lives in Fair Lawn.

BACCALAUREATE SERVICE HELD IN LITTLESTOWN

"May I Have Your Autograph?" was the subject of the sermon delivered by the Rev. Porter W. Selwell, pastor of Redeemer's Evangelical and Reformed Church, at the annual baccalaureate service held on Sunday evening at the Littlestown High School.

The Rev. Mr. Selwell, who is also president of the Littlestown Ministerium, prefaced his message by showing the graduating class a baseball, which is one of his treasured possessions as it contains the autographs of famous ball players. Pastor Selwell then explained that "we see God's autograph when we look at the stars at night, dew in the morn, thunder and lightning during a storm." He said: "It is not the pen and ink autograph which counts, but the words and deeds left by God's Son, Jesus Christ."

Pastor Selwell challenged the class with the staggering responsibility of knowing that the words and deeds they chose will influence each person with whom they come in contact, and to have wisdom to choose the right words and deeds.

Special Music

The baccalaureate service opened with the processional to the hymn "Holy, Holy, Holy," and continued as follows: Invocation, the Rev. Rodney T. Yates, pastor of Centenary Methodist Church; hymn, "O Worship the King, All Glorious Above," Scripture lesson, Psalm 8: 11 Corinthians 2:1-3, the Rev. David S. Kammerer, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church; prayer, the Rev. G. Howard Koons, pastor of Christ Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Special music included a selection, "The Master's Touch," by Carl W. Vandrey, sung by the Junior Class Choir, composed of Evelyn Breighner, Barbara Crouse, Brenda Worley, Arlene Franks, Ned Little, John Groff, Jack Busbey, Connie Boyd, Wanda Pettyjohn, Carolyn Brown, Eugene Sentz, Larry Hawk, Larry Yohn, Larry White. The choir was accompanied on the piano by Jean Krout.

The offering was received in charge of the Rev. Mr. Kammerer, and the offering was for the benefit of the band uniform fund; hymn, "This Is My Father's World," sermon, Pastor Selwell; closing hymn, "God of Grace and God of Glory," benediction, the Rev. William C. Karns, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church; recessional, "Fairest Lord Jesus." Serving as ushers

COOL SUMMER, BUILDING LAG PERILS TO AIR CONDITIONING

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The air conditioning industry enters its big selling season with hopes of setting its eighth straight sales and output record. Its two chief fears: a cool summer and a continuing lag in home building.

As for profits—that troublesome problem of recent years—the remaining companies and dealers in the field hope for better days.

In the fast growing postwar years the industry made more coolers than there were customers to go around. Inventory glut and price cutting led a number of makers to drop out.

Total retail volume in 1956 for were Alvin Smith, John Groff, Larry Yohn, Ned Little, Wayne Reinaman and Carl Pottorff.

The annual commencement exercises will take place on Wednesday evening at 8:15 p.m. in the school auditorium.

industrial, commercial and home air conditioning came to three billion dollars. Industry spokesmen hope for at least 3½ billion this year.

The Air Conditioning and Refrigeration Institute puts sales of room units at 1,600,000 last year and central cooling systems for homes at 150,000 units. It looks for a record this year for central cooling, but admits the disturbing dip in home building is a factor.

Cloud Wampler, chairman of Carrier, estimates some 250,000 central systems should be sold this year.

The industry as a whole hopes to sell two million room coolers.

Cheaper And Quieter
Technicians work at making air conditioners smaller, cheaper and quieter. They also are perfecting them to control odors, remove bacteria, block smog, and foil allergic substances.

The institute says that purchasers should get a break this year because 22 manufacturers of room units have agreed to publish capacity ratings of their products in terms of British Thermal Units (the amount of cooling capacity needed to lower the temperature of one pound of water by one degree at sea level).

This gives the buyer a standard of comparison, instead of the confusing ratings by horsepower, tons or evaporation equivalent formerly used.

PARDON BOARD PROBE SNARLED OVER REPORT

By BOB HOLTON

HARRISBURG (AP)—One lawmaker who joined in a legislative probe of the State Pardon Board said today there was no doubt that the investigating committee would mention political influence in its report to the General Assembly.

However, the spokesman, who declined quotation by name, said there is considerable disagreement among committee members about "how strong we should put it."

"We had an executive session of the committee last week at which time there was disagreement on just how we were going to write our report as far as it concerned the mention of political influence," the spokesman said.

He said the area of disagreement centered around the use of the phrase "obvious political influence" in preference to "what appeared to be political influence."

12-Week Probe
The 12-week probe at which more than 800,000 words of testimony were taken at public hearings was aimed at determining if any political or other improper influence ever was exerted on the board in its deliberations.

"I myself feel it would be proper to use the phrase 'what appeared to be political influence' but I can't agree to using 'obvious,'" the spokesman said.

This is the first concrete indication that the six-member committee would even use the words: political influence in the affirmative in its report.

Chairman Rep. Edwin W. Tompkins (R-Cameron) said the committee would meet this afternoon in executive session to discuss a rough draft of the report.

The probe was touched off last year shortly after Gov. Leader took the unanimous recommendations of the board and commuted the death sentences for David Darcy, condemned Philadelphia killer and two companions.

Sends Message To Son From Prison

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — An inmate at Eastern State Penitentiary used a rubber ball he threw over the wall to send a message to his 16-month-old son.

Marie Ann Mazur, 11, found the ball. She read a message lettered in ink on the pink sphere:

"Please, sir or miss, if this ball gets over the wall, will you please give this to my son Jeffrey Curry, address 1700 W. Master St. and ask for Louise? Thank you very much." On a separate part of the surface was printed the thoughts of a lonely man to his family: "With all my love and kisses."

The message came from Jeffrey Curry Sr., 21, serving a two-to-five-year sentence for burglary. Marie Ann and her parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mazur delivered the ball to Mrs. Curry. She said her husband had been in prison since February.

TENSION GRIPS HAITI TODAY; NEW PRESIDENT

By LARRY ALLEN

PORT AU PRINCE (AP) — Crisis-ridden Haiti had a new provisional president today, but tension still gripped the capital. Armed police watched for any renewal of violence which killed or wounded scores over the weekend.

Daniel Fignole, 43-year-old mathematics professor and idol of Haiti's workers, was sworn in yesterday as some of the clashing elements temporarily set aside their differences in an attempt to avert all-out civil war.

One of Fignole's first acts was to accept the resignation of Brig. Gen. Leon Cantave, army chief who had tried to rule the restive Negro republic since last Tuesday. Col. Antonio Kebreau, commander of the Southern Military District, was named to Cantave's post.

10,000 At Palace

Cantave and Haiti's police chief, Col. Pierre Armand, who had threatened civil war in a bid to take over the army command, both stood at Fignole's side as he took the oath.

About 10,000 workers and peasants, massed around the presidential palace, went wild with joy when the inauguration took place. Some rolled in the streets. Others fired shots in the air.

Vigilantes armed with clubs and stones still ranged the streets however, halting automobiles in search of arms.

200 Americans Trapped

About 200 Americans trapped in town by the latest crisis sought vainly to get out of Haiti. All airline service to and from the republic was still shut down.

It was impossible to establish just how many were killed or injured over the weekend, when mobs ranged the streets storming the homes of presidential candidates and hurling rocks at passers-by.

After taking the oath, Fignole issued a proclamation promising quick "free and honest" elections. He assailed dictatorships and promised to restore law and order and preserve good relations with the United States.

Forming Cabinet

At a news conference, he said he was forming a cabinet to work out means of re-establishing order and that every political candidate would have all rights protected in the election scheduled for June 16.

Fignole's appointment was agreed on by five groups—his own supporters, Cantave, Armand and two other of the 10 presidential candidates—Dr. Francois Duvalier and Clement Jumelle.

Observers believe Fignole would win hands down in any honest popular vote. His hold on color-conscious Haiti's dark-skinned workers and peasants have given him a strong edge over his closest opponent, Dr. Louis Dejeu, wealthy planter and industrialist. Dejeu is a mulatto.

Fignole heads the fifth provisional regime to try to govern since last December, when strongman Paul E. Magloire was ousted for trying to prolong his term.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chief presidential assistant Sherman Adams says Republican criticism of President Eisenhower's attempts to carry out GOP platform pledges "will end in nothing but political suicide."

Adams struck Friday night at what he said is "persistent and carping opposition" within the GOP to the administration's $71,800,000,000 spending budget and other aspects of the President's legislative program.

Pastor Reynolds spoke on the subject "The Whole Counsel of God" and based his message on Paul's letter to the church leaders at Ephesus on the text Acts 20:16-38; he also pronounced the benediction at the conclusion of the service.

The Singing Juniors, 38 voices, sang the national anthem and "Spirit of the Living God," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Jay R. Crouse, and directed by the pastor, the Rev. Porter W. Seiwel. The girls of the Singing Juniors then sang a camp song, "Tell Me Why," which they dedicated to the Rev. and Mrs. Reynolds. The Senior Choir, under the direction of Samuel H. Higinbotham and accompanied on the organ by Mrs. George A. Stoner, sang the anthem "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked," O'Hara. The altar flowers were placed by the Hostlers' Class.

Plan Memorial Service
It was incorrectly stated in the meeting of the Starr Bible Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, that Mrs. George DeHoff was the oldest mother present and that Mrs. Ralph Conover won a contest during the program. Mrs. George DeGroot was the oldest mother, with the largest family present, and the contest was won by Mrs. Irvin Kindig.

The Adams County Past Grands Association will meet with the Mary Gettys Rebekah Lodge on Thursday, June 6, at 8 p.m. in the lodge rooms at Gettysburg.

The annual memorial service will be held in connection with the dinner meeting of the local Rotary Club on Tuesday at 6:15 p.m. at Schottie's Hotel, when Ladies' Night will also be observed. The program will be in charge of the program committee, composed of Paul E. King, chairman, Cloy I. Crouse, Luther W. Ritter, Charles E. Rabenstein and Lloyd E. Crouse.

PITCAIRN BACKS
IKE ON BUDGET

"Republicans who oppose the President on the budget are hurting their own party's chances for victory in the Congressional election next year," a prominent Pennsylvania Republican and Philadelphia industrialist, said today.

The warning was made by Raymond Pitcairn, an original Eisenhower supporter for the Presidency, and member of the Republican Finance Committee of Pennsylvania. He is well known in Gettysburg.

In a letter to over 4,000 Republican contributors and leaders, Pitcairn said:

"If politics is their motive, what do these members of our own party have to gain."

"They will provide an opportunity

East King street school at 10 a.m.; and the hourly assignments will be made the same day at Crouse's Pool, by the instructors. The officials are also making arrangements to take the Cubs to a baseball game in Baltimore, but the date has not yet been confirmed.

The ceremonies on Sunday opened with the Pledge of Allegiance, led by Boy Scout Robert Hahn. Ice cream and orange were served after the ceremonies.

STOCKS MOVE UP

NEW YORK (AP) — A burst of heavy trading pushed the stock market generally higher early today.

Oils once again surged forward as they continued to ride on their good earnings reports and optimistic prospects made public recently. The aircrafts, however, were lower, resuming their recent trend.

The increasing prospect of some kind of disarmament agreement this year has not helped the aircrafts, Wall Street observers said.

for the Democrats to win the Congressional election in 1958 and the Presidency in 1960.

"There are some men in our own party, as well as the Democrats, who want to attack the budget with a 'meat axe'."

"Economy in the face of clear and present danger would be tragic indeed."

"As loyal Republicans we must not let this happen! It is necessary for us to unite behind the President in the battle of the budget."

"We believe, as does the President, in economy and in taking every opportunity to eliminate waste and extravagance and unnecessary spending. Every step should be taken to do that, but we must support the President to the limit on appropriations that affect our national defense and our security."

COURT AFFIRMS
DEATH PENALTY

HARRISBURG (AP) — The State Supreme Court today upheld the death penalty for Norman W. Moon, 32, of Conneville, who shot a Warren County judge to death three years ago.

The high tribunal affirmed the Warren County Court death verdict with one dissenting opinion, by Justice Michael A. Musmanno.

Moon asked the Supreme Court to set aside the sentence on the grounds he failed to receive a fair and impartial trial.

Edward Dumbauld, Uniontown, representing Moon, told the court in April when the case was argued that his client should be granted a new trial because his fate was entrusted to "a prejudiced jury lacking the necessary qualifications of fairness and impartiality."

Moon killed Judge Allison D. Wade in the main courtroom of the Warren County Courthouse on Jan. 13, 1954. Moon had been called into court on a charge of failing to comply with a support order for his wife.

Don Burnham, class of 1944, still holds the Dartmouth mile run record of 4:10.6.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (P) — The AFL-CIO has laid the groundwork for keeping its member unions and their officers honest and democratic. That shows good intentions. But two questions remain unanswered.

How hard will the AFL-CIO work at cleaning its own house? And can it really do a good job without action by Congress in the form of new laws to guard the money and interests of rank-and-file union members?

The AFL and CIO, when they merged in 1955, wrote into their constitution machinery for investigating wrongdoing by unions and their officers and for suspending and expelling them.

That was done before the nation was shocked this year by the Senate Rackets Committee's disclosures involving the Teamsters Union and the handling of its funds by its president, Dave Beck.

Those disclosures gave the AFL-CIO added reason for doing its own cleaning earnestly or facing the prospect of having the federal government do it.

But unionists play politics among themselves. And, like politicians, they are bound to have respect for size and numbers.

Investigating and throwing out a small union is neither difficult nor shattering. Taking the initiative against a giant union requires more guts.

Up To Union
The AFL-CIO did not begin its investigation of Beck's Teamsters, biggest union of all, until the Senate committee's revelations made such an investigation inescapably necessary.

If a Senate committee was needed to tell the AFL-CIO what was going on in Beck's union, what reason is there to believe it will

Rice Declares GOP Slash Deprives State Of U.S. Aid

HARRISBURG (P) — A multi-million dollar program requested by the State Military Affairs Department—primarily for armory construction—appeared sidelined today by Republican plans to trim Gov. Leader's record budget.

The GOP, eyeing 94½-million-dollar budget cut, rejected the governor's request for $1,171,250 to help finance some 34 new projects in 32 communities. It was chopped off the Property and Supplies Department budget.

Military Affairs had chartered the building program to improve and provide new facilities for Pennsylvania National Guard units.

The rejected figure represents the state's share with the federal government in financing the proposed new construction. The latter pays 75 per cent and the state 25 per cent of building expenses.

Loss $3 Million
"By cutting out the appropriation of $1,171,250, the Republicans lost Pennsylvania some three million dollars in federal aid for new armory construction and additions," John S. Rice property and supplies secretary said, adding:

"The Military Affairs Department considered the projects covered in this budget request as necessary to adequately house personnel and maintain equipment of the Pennsylvania National Guard. Most of the buildings to be enlarged were constructed 20 and more years ago and designed at that time for smaller complements of men and for less equipment than at present."

The GOP budget blueprint calls for granting $500,000 of a requested sum of $1,161,617 for armory repairs.

Must Study Bills
Rice said the new construction be any more perceptive or active against some other big union until it is forced to be?

That is why burden of proof is on the AFL-CIO to show it means business permanently when it asserts, through a series of well-sounding statements, its determination to do it own police work.
